*Exceptions to the Exam Schedule:

Classes that meet one day per week should normally hold exams on the day the class meets at the exam time closest to the time the class meets. For example, a W only class at 6:00 pm should hold its exam from 6:00-8:00 pm on Wednesday December 9 and Friday classes should hold their finals on Friday, December 11 at the time slot closest to their regular class time. Instructors should consult with the appropriate program director, adjunct coordinator, or dean to confirm that two exams are not scheduled in the same room at the same time before announcing the time for the final exam. Students should confirm the time for the final exam with the instructor.

FSSE 1000

Final exams for FSSE 1000 will be held on the last day of class.

Final Exam Policy

No time and date departures from the published examination schedule should occur without the prior approval of the dean of the appropriate division and the executive vice president/chief academic officer.

Final Exam Schedule Conflicts

Students with three or more final examinations scheduled within the same calendar day or two examinations scheduled at the same time on the same day may request to reschedule one exam to another scheduled exam day. Students with conflicts should see the dean of the division that oversees the program in which they are enrolled in order to receive assistance in coordinating their exam schedules. The Office of Academic Affairs will provide assistance to the deans.
