ATC sets deadline for student participation in 2012 graduation

Athens Technical College officials are preparing for the 2012 graduation ceremony that will be held in May, and are asking ATC students who will complete their programs of study between now and the end of summer semester to apply for participation in the commencement exercises.

Any ATC student will finish his or her program of study by the end of Spring or Summer Semester 2012 must apply for graduation by Friday, March 2 of this year. Graduation applications are available in the Office of Registration and Records (Building H) on the Athens campus and in main office on the Elbert, Walton, or Greene County campus.

All students who completed or will complete their programs of study in any of the following terms are eligible to participate in the annual graduation ceremony:

- Summer Transition Quarter 2011
- Fall Semester 2011
- Spring Semester 2012
- Summer Semester 2012

The graduation ceremony will be held at 7 p.m., Thursday, May 3 this year at the Classic Center, 300 N. Thomas St. in downtown Athens. Additional information about the graduation ceremony and ticket availability will be mailed to students who have applied for graduation by the March 2 deadline. Graduation attire will be available in the bookstore in April.
