

Excellence in America's Workforce Begins with Excellence in Workforce Education

National Technical Honor Society

NTHS is the acknowledged leader in the recognition of outstanding student achievement in career and technical education. Over 2200 schools and colleges throughout the U.S. and its territories are affiliated with the society. Member schools agree that NTHS encourages higher scholastic achievement, cultivates a desire for personal excellence, and helps top students find success in today's highly competitive workplace.

Purpose of NTHS

- To recognize and honor excellence in career and technical education
- To encourage students to reach for higher levels of achievement, develop self-esteem and pride
- To champion a stronger, more positive image for career and technical education in America
- To promote critical work-place values— skill development, honesty, responsibility, service, scholarship, citizenship, and leadership
- To help member schools and colleges build and maintain effective partnerships with local business and industry
- To provide greater career opportunities for the NTHS membership and
- To promote educational excellence in America

Congratulations!

As a candidate for NTHS membership, you have been identified as one of the top performing students in the nation. Your achievement has placed you among a very select group of students qualifying for membership in the National Technical Honor Society.

An invitation extended by your school or college represents an important educational milestone— the highest National award for excellence in career and technical education.

Get on the NTHS Team

Joining NTHS is an important career investment, respected by business, industry, and education that will add value and prestige to your professional portfolio. Students pay a one-time $25.00 membership fee.

Student candidates must meet national and local membership standards and should be persons who have demonstrated scholastic achievement, skill development, leadership, honesty, responsibility, and good character. Membership in a career/technical student organization (CTSO) is important to leadership development and career preparation and therefore, strongly encouraged.
