

Athens Technical College Veterinary Technology Program

Veterinary Technician National Examination (VTNE)
three-year pass rate data:

	January 01, 2023 to December 31, 2025
The number of graduates that have taken the VTNE for the first-time & within one year of graduation (total number for three-years for the timeframe indicated)	23
Three-Year VTNE First-Time Pass Rate Percentage %	91.30 %

The Veterinary Technician National Examination (VTNE) is a standardized test administered by the American Association of Veterinary State Boards (AAVSB) to evaluate the competency of entry-level veterinary technicians. Passing the VTNE is a requirement for becoming a credentialed veterinary technician in the state of Georgia.